

NATIONAL RESEARCH DAY

November 7-9, 2012 Vancouver, BC, Canada

SEXUAL VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE Exploring the Continuum of Violence Against Women and Girls

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Invited Speakers

Beverley Jacobs - Past President, Native Women's Association of Canada

Mary Ellen Turpel-Lafond - BC Representative for Children and Youth

Elizabeth Sheehy - Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa

Liz Kelly - Professor of Sexualized Violence, London Metropolitan University

Invited Participants

- ▶ Community-based anti-violence organizations and service providers
- ▶ Social workers, health care providers, and criminal justice personnel
- ▶ Women in all their diversity who have lived experiences of violence
- ▶ Government and policy makers
- ▶ Academic and community-based researchers

We invite proposals for presentations and posters in English/French, relevant to the conference theme:
the intersectional analyses of both sexual and domestic violence along the continuum of violence against women and girls.

Suggested Sub-Themes

- ▶ Missing and murdered Aboriginal women
- ▶ Immigrant, refugee, and racialized women
- ▶ Women in rural and remote communities
- ▶ Sex trade and entertainment industry workers
- ▶ Violence in LGBT communities
- ▶ Sexual exploitation and trafficking
- ▶ Sexual violence in relationships
- ▶ Health impacts of violence
- ▶ Improving women's safety
- ▶ Screening and disclosure
- ▶ Secondary victimization
- ▶ Barriers to services
- ▶ Transition and long-term housing
- ▶ Healing, resilience, and recovery
- ▶ Criminal justice system processing
- ▶ Legislation and policy
- ▶ Promising practices
- ▶ Prevention programs and evaluation

Proposal Submission Deadline: April 30, 2012

Presenter Notification Date: June 29, 2012

Presenter Registration Deadline: August 13, 2012

The FREDA Centre
for Research on Violence Against Women and Children

For further information and submission instructions, please visit www.fredacentre.com

This National Research Day is organized by the FREDA Centre (School of Criminology, Simon Fraser University), in partnership with the Alliance of Canadian Research Centres on Violence, the Canadian Observatory on the Justice System's Response to Intimate Partner Violence, the Ending Violence Association of British Columbia, and our National and Regional Advisory Committees.

2012